

School Funding and Action Committee
May 10, 2011
7:00 PM
SUMMARY

We discussed where school funding stands now with regard to the Governor's Budget, since the funding issues are ever evolving.

Cathy is going to testify in front of the Senate and what should be included in the testimony.

Eileen Watts sat in on a Senate Finance Committee meeting and she brought back observations from the State House.

Expressed the need to bring in Sen. Kris Jordan for a town hall forum.

Cathy is attending: Dublin City School officials are inviting residents from both Dublin and Olentangy to join them for a question-and-answer session May 11 regarding the proposed state budget and its impact on high-performing districts with relatively high property values. Several local lawmakers have indicated they will attend the meeting, including Senator Kris Jordan who also represents the Olentangy community. The session will be held May 11 at 7 p.m. in the performing arts center at Dublin Coffman High School, 6780 Coffman Road. Click here for more information.

List Serve is now up to 44 members.

Need to recruit new members come September.

Tracy MacDowell will be taking over temporarily since Cathy Epervary is moving and leaving the district. Tracy will take over at the June meeting.