

Language Arts

Advanced News Journalism

05/20/2009

Phonemic Awareness	Acquisition of Vocabulary	Reading Process	Reading Applications Informational	Reading Applications Literary
		1. Choose, adjust, infer, and draw conclusions from independent reading materials to produce the news magazine (ex: research resources)	2. Assess organizational patterns and techniques of journalistic writing (ex: student-generated work). 3. Examine arguments, perspectives, and viewpoints in research sources (ex.: public documents). 4. Assess the treatment, scope and organization of ideas from multiple sources to produce the news magazine.	5. Compare, evaluate, and measure the effectiveness of the presentation of various publications according to journalistic standards (ex: student-generated, professional).

Writing Process	Writing Applications	Writing Conventions	Research Standard	Communication Standard
6. Synthesize all pre-writing tasks from previous journalism courses for publication (ex: research, organizational strategies). 7. Compose all copy according to accepted journalistic standards. 8. Create news magazine and submit to printer.	9. Synthesis writing applications from previous journalism courses to produce the news magazine.	10. Synthesize all writing conventions from previous journalism courses (ex: consistent use of AP style).	11. Conduct research and determine accuracy and credibility to narrow the focus or extend the investigation in order to publish the news magazine (ex: validate copy).	12. Compose and select high quality photographs that convey information. 13. Synthesize all communication standards from previous journalism courses (ex: sales, interviews, advertising.)